Victorious!

Saxons show teamwork as they put together a Saxon victory.
The B squad football team had a tough but exciting season as they lost 4, won 2 and tied 2. Shadle fell to the Saxons in their first game 22-0 but tied 14-14 in the second bout. Coach Morton and Strand have been proud of their team and gave awards to Most Inspirational Syd Lofton, Most Improved Hal Levitch and Most Valuable Rick Romney.

Distance. Jerry Morton, Del McCue, Dave Williams, Dave Musson, Kirk Hanson, Randy James, Lorne Bostwick, Jeff Anderson, and Ed Zalak.
The Joel E. Ferris Track Team is seeking its third city championship as coach Herm Caviness is very confident that the team will finish high in league standings. The Saxons opened their season with a 95-32 victory over Mead, raising their record to 24 wins and 2 losses in three years. The team is strong in all events with several lettermen returning. Randy James and Jerry Morton State Distance runners, Bob Sepolen hurdles, Louis Crawford leading in the sprints and Duane Teurke high jump are all proven stars from Ferris and will obviously be a part of the support of a fine track season.
Boys' Tennis

Coach Anderson, B-Squad, and Coach Hunt, Varsity.

In the Fall, the girls' varsity team won 2 matches and lost 2 matches. B-Squad won 3 and only lost 1. This Spring a new schedule will be tried out. Instead of a varsity and B-Squad, there will be a singles and doubles team representing us in girls tennis. Nine girls will be on the singles ladder and 18 (nine teams) on the doubles ladder.

The league of Dresden Dad-Daughter Dessert
The League spring dance, appropriately named "The Age of Aquarius" blew the student body's mind with a fantastic new idea; a boutique fashion show for both guys and girls. The traditional Mother-Daughter tea was held in May, but with a new twist; pictures of each girl with her mother. Pictured, are the Spring officers: Dee Johnson, Tori Oakley, Connie Pennell, Suanne Yonkie, Ann Walters, Lori Churchill.

The A.S.B. started things off with a bang this year with a groovin’ Hello Week. Each day of the week various activities were held. The climax of the week came at the first dance of the year, when the friendliest boy and girl of each class were chosen. Other activities of the A.S.B. were the annual Hope Drive which raised well over a thousand dollars again this year. The A.S.B. was aided greatly by their advisor Mr. Wallace. This semester also saw the beginning of the Ferris Round Table.

One of the many activities of Hello Week was the hilarious three-legged race.

Alice Flake and Doug Ford go wild in the first pep con of the year.
The second semester A.S.B. officers were installed in the traditional double con in February, at which, Ferris's first Lilac princess, Suzie Harris Wilcox, socked it to the student body about the early days at Ferris. This launched the A.S.B. into an active and hopefully "meaningful" semester, beginning with the mysterious Merlin show. The Ferris Round Table gained momentum as the semester progressed and proved itself as an interesting experiment.

and Production Staff

Members of the Thespian Troupe at Ferris attended various conferences throughout the year, and participated in several productions, including "Camelot", which was presented in the fall.

The stage crew was very helpful this year in the technical work of dramatic productions and everyday in large groups.

The crew is left to right: Jeff Hanson, Dick White, Bob Meath, Frank Stearns, and Jim Ormond.
Films, lectures, and traditional celebrations made the year interesting and fun for foreign language students, as they studied other cultures in Les Normans (French Club), Lanza (Spanish Club), Legio Decima (Latin Club), and the newly formed Russian Club.

Excellence in musical endeavors

The Music Dept.'s production, "Camelot"

The Ferris High Music Dept. presents several programs during the year, including annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. In November, they presented "Camelot". The vocal arrangements were directed by Mr. Elmer Peters, and the orchestra was directed by Mr. Wayne Summers.
Performances at Ferris and around Spokane were given by these girls, the Canterbury Belles. One especially impressive performance was seen at the League of Dresden talent con, a touching seven minute song from Fiddler on the Roof.

The Junior Talent Con this year was the best Junior Con ever. It featured all Junior talent. Some highlights of the show included: Vaughn and Aker, a folk-rock duo; Joan Westover and Rhonda Hawkins, each with a vocal solo; a girls' football team; Adam's Burlesque, a dance line; and another dance line, the Soul Sisters.

HERE IT IS ANOTHER JUNE

But there was never one like this for you, the members of the class of ’70.

You stand on the first of many pinnacles that will be coming in sight. No need to look back, that trail has been climbed.

Look at the horizon, those peaks are equally attainable.

May you travel among friends.

Special Thanks To . . .

Mr. Dale Quincy for his devoted assistance throughout the school year.

Those members of the faculty and administration who co-operated with our efforts.

All those students who purchased yearbooks, in turn making production possible.

Mr. Lindsey and Mr. Williams for their considerate co-operation.
"No one sees what is before his feet: we all gaze at the stars."
